MOSER MAYER PHOENIX ASSOCIATES, PA
ANNOUNCES NEW ARCHITECTURAL DESIGNER
Greensboro, North Carolina
September 23, 2010

Greensboro, NC, September 23, 2010 -- Moser Mayer Phoenix Associates, PA, a full-service architecture, engineering, landscape architecture and interior design firm, announces that Emily Hinton joined the firm as an intern architect in March of 2010, and has since accepted the title of architectural designer. Hinton graduated Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Architecture and a minor in Urban Studies from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. She possesses professional affiliations as an associate AIA member.

Moser Mayer Phoenix Associates, PA is a design firm more than 20 years experience. The firm is led by Bill Moser, AIA, NCARB, Kenneth C. Mayer, Jr., FAIA, LEED and Thomas H. Phoenix, PE, LEED - recognized leaders in the architecture and engineering professions in North Carolina. MMPA's work, particularly in adaptive reuse and historic preservation, has won numerous national and regional awards for design excellence. Some of their noted local projects include NewBridge Bank Park, Center Pointe, and the restoration of Greensboro's J. Douglas Galyon Transportation Depot. Currently, Hinton is involved with projects such as the expansion of the Natural Science Center of Greensboro, the High Point Police Training Facility, and the renovation/expansion of First Baptist Church in Burlington.
