MOSER MAYER PHOENIX ASSOCIATES, PA
ANNOUNCES NEW PLUMBING DESIGNER
Greensboro, North Carolina
November 22, 2010

Greensboro, NC, November, 2010 -- Moser Mayer Phoenix Associates, PA, a full-service architecture, engineering, landscape architecture and interior design firm, announces that Ron Deese has joined the firm in the Mechanical Engineering Department. Mr. Deese will be primarily performing plumbing design, but may also be involved in the design of fire protection and HVAC systems as required. Mr. Deese has over fifteen years of mechanical engineering experience including: plumbing and fire protection design; LEED design and documentation; the design of mechanical, electrical and controls systems; programming and project management. Mr. Deese graduated Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. He possesses professional affiliations with ASPE and NFPA and has previous affiliations with ASHRAE. Ron has plans of earning the CPD (“Certified in Plumbing Design”) certification offered through ASPE in the coming year. Ron is also currently in the first stage of pursuing his Professional Engineer’s license in the state of North Carolina.

Moser Mayer Phoenix Associates, PA is a design firm with more than 20 years of experience. The firm is led by Bill Moser, AIA, NCARB, Kenneth C. Mayer, Jr., FAIA, LEED, Thomas H. Phoenix, PE, LEED, and J. Alan Cox, AIA - recognized leaders in the architecture and engineering professions in North Carolina. MMPA's work, particularly in adaptive reuse and historic preservation, has won numerous national and regional awards for design excellence. Some of their noted local projects include NewBridge Bank Park, Center Pointe, and the restoration of Greensboro’s J. Douglas Galyon Transportation Depot. Currently, Deese is involved with projects such as the expansion of the Natural Science Center of Greensboro, the High Point Police Training Facility, and the renovation/expansion of Elon Community Church in Elon, NC.

Personal Notes / Hobbies: Ron is a proud veteran of the US Army (serving in 1st Special Operations Command, Ft. Bragg, NC). Ron and his wife will celebrate their twenty-second anniversary in May and have two daughters. Ron is an active member of Parkwood Baptist Church, where he teaches Sunday School. Ron is also an ordained Southern Baptist Deacon. He is an avid reader, golf enthusiast and enjoys playing guitar.
